Dr. Baxter Greer Begins 6th Year As Local Pastor

Harry Mark Cauley, Clerk of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church, announces that Dr. Baxter Greer has accepted a call to continue as State Supply minister of the local church for another year, beginning March 1.

This will be the sixth year Dr. and Mrs. Greer have served this church. Dr. Greer says he and Mrs. Greer are happy to continue their ministry in this city and community, and are encouraged by the progress that has been made during the past five years, and the prospects for future developments. The church is well organized with a Sunday School, Women's Organization, Young Peoples Fellowship, Boy Scout Troop and a Men's Brotherhood in the process of organization.

In recent years a modern electric church organ and other impressive Christian symbols of worship have been installed and dedicated in the sanctuary, as memorials to faithful members and friends of past years. The church and manse buildings have been repaired and redecorated and other equipment has been provided for more efficient service.

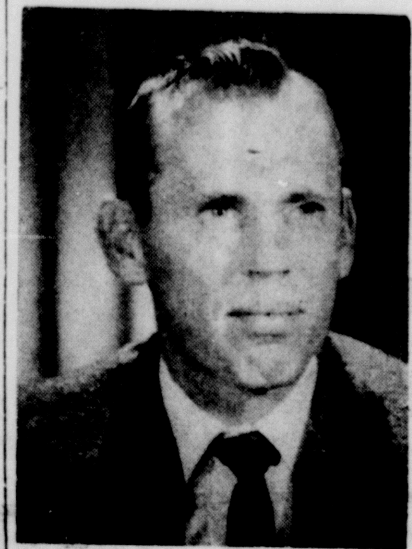

The church is beginning its third year on a self-supporting basis and reports all accounts paid to date and favorable balances in all funds.

City Shocked By Death of Former Grid Great, A. J. Coker

A. J. (Ears) Coker, 38, former outstanding football player for Comanche High School, died about 2 p.m. Monday, Feb. 27, of a heart attack in Freeport, where he had been employed by one of the big industrial plants for more than 10 years. Mr. Coker was regarded as one of Freeport's leading citizens, judging by the fact that 25 Masons from that city were scheduled to come to Comanche Thursday, March 2, to assist in the Masonic graveside rites at Oakwood Cemetery after services at 2 p.m. in the Comanche Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. Henry M. Chambers, pastor of the local First Baptist Church officiating. Initial services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Freeport.

A native of Comanche, Mr. Coker was the son of the late A. J. Coker, Sr. and his wife, Bessie Coker, who now resides in Fort Worth.

Survivors besides his mother, include his wife, the former Miss Mary Charles Hagood, and their daughter, Susan, 5 a sister, Mrs. Lottie Bortis of Fort Worth, and a brother, L. T. Coker of Bellville.

Mr. Coker, a 1942 graduate of Comanche High School, played football in 1938 through 1941. For the first two years he played end and then was switched to fullback where he made all-district the first year and all-regional honors the next year. His coaches were Glenn Frazier and John Dyer. The team won the district championship in 1940 and beat Bowie 20 to 0 for the bi-district title in 1941, and then lost the regional to Stamford by a single point.

Coker's teammates on the title winning team of 1941 were Eoff and Spears, ends; Carter and Pipes, guards; Luper, center; Edwards and Waggoner, tackles; Nichols, quarterback; Monroe and Jackson, halfbacks; with Coker, fullback.

No New Contests Develop In City, School Elections

No contest has yet developed in the Comanche City Election to be held on Tuesday, April 4. Deadline for filing is Saturday, March 4.

Two places are to be filled on the City Council. Candidates are Gayle Pirkle and Chester McKinzie.

Mayor John Hall has announced for re-election, and Ruth Loudermilk seeks re-election as City Secretary.

School Trustee Election

Five candidates seek three positions as members of the board of trustees of Comanche Independent School District. The deadline for filing has passed.

Three places are to be filled. Candidates are Harry Mark Cauley, Henry Huffman, John Campbell, Floyd Prather, and Louis Harelik.

Public schools of Comanche County will hold open house next week, March 6-10, in connection with observance of the 107th year of public schools in Texas.

Superintendent S. H. Fletcher, in behalf of Comanche Public Schools, issues a special invitation to patrons of the area to visit one or more local schools next week.

Next Tuesday night, March 7, from 7 until 9 o'clock, there is to be an informal open house in all buildings of the Comanche system.

"All school personnel will be in their respective departments to discuss their work with visitors," says Superintendent Fletcher, in adding that refreshments will be served to those attending.

So, let's go back to school next week—if only for a day or a night. Do you remember the smell of chalk dust when the blackboards were erased? Or the mixture of odors coming out of the chemistry lab?

Or maybe the sound of marching feet down the halls? Well, you can experience all of this again during Public Schools Week.

You will be made welcome in all Comanche County schools; so let's make a date now to go back to school—if only for a few minutes.

All-Time High Enrollment

Comanche now has 47 teachers in the system—and if present average daily attendance continues at the present pace, will pick up one and possibly two new teachers next year.

Attendance in Comanche schools this week—1,020—an all-time high.

COMMERCIAL LAMB SHOW SATURDAY, MARCH 11

by Angus Dickson, Jr., County Agricultural Agent.

The show date of the 3rd Annual Comanche County Commercial Lamb Program is set for Saturday, March 11th, according to J. A. Cox, Sidney, president.

At a recent meeting, commercial sheep committeemen A. C. Crist, Cox, Hardy Harris, Bud Matthews, Gayle McCullough, and Herman Sparkman reported 171 lamb in the 1961 commercial program by 21 FFA boys and 4-H boys and girls.

The Livestock Market Study and Trip to Fort Worth is a highlight of the program for the FFA and 4-H members. Committeemen Sparkman and Crist from Gustine will go to Fort Worth in the near future to make final plans and arrangements for the two-day study and trip on March 12th and 13th.

Community service combined with a well-rounded agricultural program netted Evans the coveted top honors.

Runner-up in the contest, sponsored by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, was Max Mahli-mann of Richmond, with George Holecamp of Kerrville placing third in the statewide competition.

Included in his agricultural program are 3,000 laying hens, irrigated and dry land peanuts, coastal bermuda pastures, and a sizeable beef and swine production.

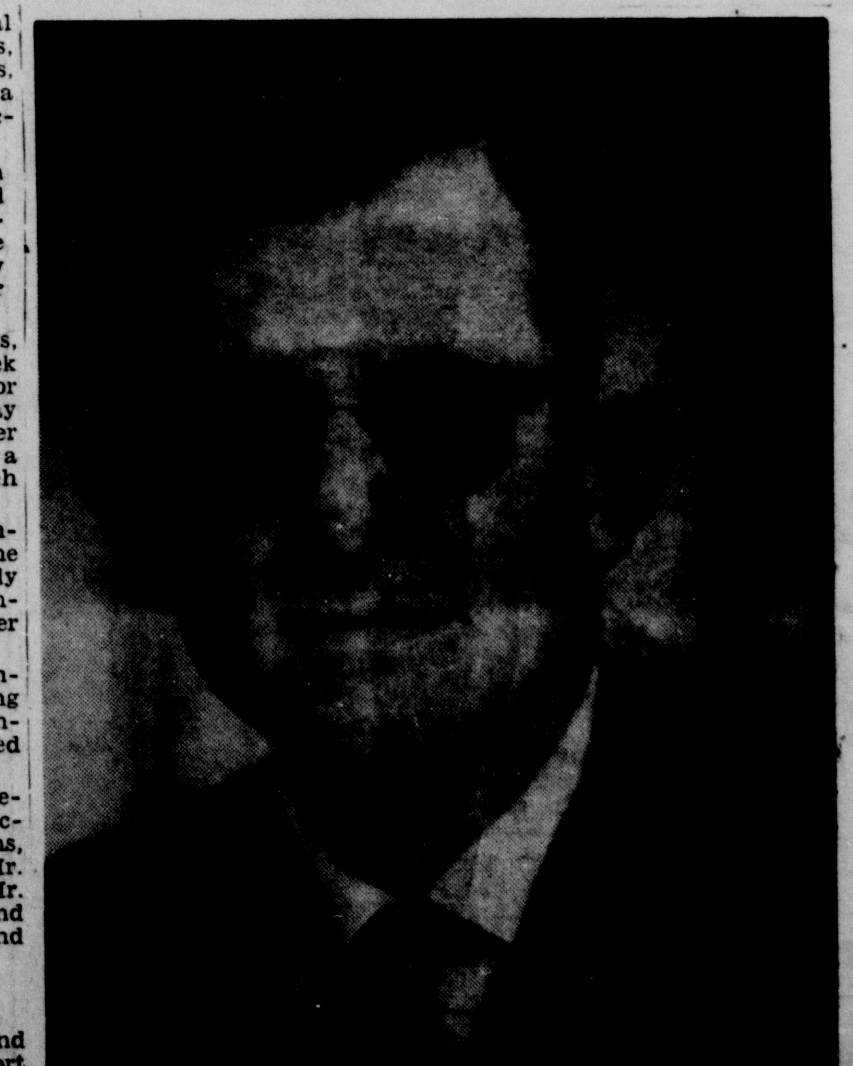

Evans owns a 230 acre farm in the Proctor community, and operates 690 acres, 360 in cropland and 330 in pasture. The Evans family now has a new 2,000 square foot home under construction.

Evans, a farmer for 15 years, is active in the Baggett Creek Baptist Church and the Proctor Community Club. He is Sunday School superintendent, a former Sunday School teacher and a former member of the church board.

Evans was named as Comanche County's Outstanding Young Farmer February 13 in Comanche. The contest was sponsored by Comanche Jaycees.

Attending the banquet in Seguin from Comanche and Proctor were Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brannan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hyatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lane.

Senior Play Cast Selected

"Grandma's Best Years", a three act comedy has been chosen by the sponsor, Miss Nobia Dunn, for this year's senior play.

The summary of the play shows that when Grandma Simms comes to visit her daughter, she finds that she has become a social climber since the death of her husband, and the three Abbott children and Sadie, the maid, are having a miserable time.

The day Gram arrives, Mrs. Abbott has three guest home for the week-end. One of them is rich and snobbish Edwin Carlson, who Mrs. Abbott insists, her daughter, Joyce, must marry, although she loves Jim Meyerson, a local telegraph operator. Another of her guests is Miss Quelch, an unlikeable spinster, who runs an exclusive girls' school, to which Mrs. Abbott intends to send Marion, her fifteen-year-old daughter. Willie, the thirteen-year-old son, is also suffering, because his mother won't allow him to do anything he wants, and insists that he practice his violin so she can impress people with her culture.

Well, Gram is determined to put a stop to all this, and she invites the family blacksheep to a week-end party. This scheme doesn't come off quite as planned because she has never seen cousin Oscar, the family blacksheep, and mistakes a criminal for him.

Naturally, the party is not what Mrs. Abbott hoped for, but it is not what Gram hoped for either. The criminal finds it necessary to get rough, causing plenty of exciting complications. But when Gram gets ahold of the trusty shotgun, she emerges as the heroine of the situation. What happens at the end? Well, come, see, and get the reward in the form of laughs and excitement.

Try-outs for the play were held in the auditorium February 22. The judges were Mrs. Robt. Eaton Mrs. Gail Dudley and Mrs. Porter Franks.

The results are as follows: Mrs. Abbott, Deanna Durham; Sadie, Gail Anthony; Joyce Abbott, Virginia Cobb; Marion Abbot, Janice Isham; Dottie Morgan, Judy Robertson; Willie Abbott, Paul Ray McKinzie; Shorty, Tommy Evridge; Jim Meyerson, Jimmy Walker; Gram, Beverly Barret; Patch, James Johnson; Mabel, Judy McCullough; Mrs. Carlson, Sherry Ross; Bubbles, Barbara Jennings; Miss Quelch, Barbara Hicks; Edwin Carlson, Billy Charles Wheat and Cousin Oscar, Butch Weatherby.

Returns From Brady Mrs. Howell Cobb has returned from Brady where she spent four days last week with her mother, was able to come to Comanche Mrs. Foster Leech, who was ill in this week for a visit with her the Brady hospital. Mrs. Leech family.

Remember, too, Valiant's low prices begin $100 lower than last year. And because Valiant's

Clues For Better Clothing Care

by Ruth K. Stringer, Home Demonstration Agent.

Next time you shop for fabrics or ready-to-wear, be sure to check the fiber label. That's an important clue to the kind of care and wear you can expect, according to Extension Clothing Specialists of the A&M College of Texas.

Since March 3 of the past year, the new Textile Fiber Products Identification Act has been in effect. This means that all textile fiber products must now carry a label which gives the generic (family) names and percentages by weight of the fibers in the product.

We all recognize the natural fibers—cotton, linen, silk and wool; but, some of the man-made fibers have unfamiliar generic names. Specialists point out that it is very important to learn these new names because they give an important clue to proper washing, drying and pressing temperatures and to spot removal.

Trade names also exist for many fibers. But when a manufacturer uses a trade name must pair it with the generic names of fibers, so that you can have this important clue to clothing care.

Specialists give a practical fiber point plan for buying clothing
a leaflet, "For Clues To Clothing Care—Read Your Fiber Label."
Ask for a copy of this new bulletin from your County Home Demonstration Agent's office.

FROM THE COMANCHE CHIEF
JULY 16, 1881
Joe W. Hill and Robert T. Hill, Editors.

(Note from the present Editor: This is the last of three articles, taken from the oldest copy of The Comanche Chief that we now have in our possession. The first article dealt with the shooting of U. S. President James A. Garfield; the second covered the advertisements of the issue. This last article covers miscellaneous items.)

Revised Version of The New Testament are being given away to subscribers of The Comanche Chief. To every new subscriber to The Comanche Chief for six months or longer, and to every old subscriber renewing for the same period, there will be presented a copy of the Revised New Testament. This offer holds good for 90 days from the 11th day of June, 1881.

Rev. George Higby (Colored) had just laid down his head at the new building where he had been working, and was wiping the perspiration from his brow, preparatory to quitting his day's labor, when a Chief scribe touched his arm with a pocket medicine flask and called him aside for an interview. After he had smacked his lips several times and washed the lime out of his throat, we proceeded to business.

"George," said we, "What is your candid opinion of the 'Revised New Testament', and do you think it will be adopted by the Colored Baptist Church of Comanche?"

"I hain't red dat book, for dar an entirely too much sand and lime hyar to be mixed to allow me to read any ob this new fangled literature. And until my book turns to do what day am told in de old book, they needn't tell their washing to rede the new book."

"But, George, there have been made some radical and important changes which cannot be overlooked," said The Chief scribe.

"What am dem changes? Do dey make hell any hotter? Or do dey make the milk of human kindness flow any freer from de breast of old mankind?"

We acknowledged that it had rather a more cooling effect on the "Hell" question, by substituting the modifying words "Hades" and "Gehenna".

And we added that as far as the milk of human kindness was concerned, the cow that gave it had long since gone dry.

"Well, I don't want nuffin to do with any sich book and if de Hell am to be no hotter fur dem boys that throw rocks at my congregation, I don't want de change fur—"

As long as the light holds out to burn, De vilest sinners may return. And if this Revised New Testament Gibe room for more debilitation—

You can just say dat George Higby's gwine to hab no hands in changing that good old book. Good day, Sah."

Use of The School
A large number of our citizens are present at the college last Friday afternoon to witness the closing examinations of the Comanche City free schools. There are no superfluous exercises; no dress in the pupils or any exhibition, but simply a plain oral examination of what the scholars had learned during the session.

Every visitor was charged by the correctness of the answers made by the pupils, and the thoroughness of the training. Prof. Timmins and his assistants have done remarkably well out of the chaotic state of things in our town, they have published a system, which, if carried out, will soon place our educational facilities second to none in the state.

One class of little boys and girls were examined in geography. They stood a very creditable examination and manifested much familiarity with the different parts of the earth as could be expected from children of their age.

No town or city which once has adopted the tax plan has been induced to quit it. I hope the same may be said of Comanche and that she will extend her free school facilities until students of all ages shall be admitted and at least a thorough English, mathematical and scientific education can be obtained.

Rev. J. T. Harris preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday night. He has been a favorite minister in Comanche for many years.

The Central Railroad is putting up a large depot in the northern portion of the county at what is known as "Cooverville," (now De Leon.)

The Gum Springs choir visited town Saturday night and favored our citizens with several selections of songs. The singing was much better than the average and excelled anything of its kind we have ever heard in Comanche County.

A regular old fashioned picnic and barbecue and "doasyouplease" gathering will be held on Mustang Creek near what is known as the Condron Settlement in the eastern portion of the county July 24. A good time and plenty to eat may be expected from that neighborhood for they are never known for doing anything by the halves. The public is invited.

Free Education
To the youth of our state senatorial district, a splendid opportunity is now offered to obtain a free education in one of the three best professions—agriculture, mechanics, and teaching. A competitive examination will be held soon at Eastland for the purpose of selecting three pupils to the State Normal School at Huntsville; one colored pupil to the State Normal School at Prairie View; and three young men for the State Agriculture and Mechanical College at Bryan.

We hope our boys and girls will not be slow to appreciate this opportunity, and will contest for these appointments.

Master Tom Lacy, who for some time has been working in The Chief office as an apprentice, departed on Tuesday last for San Antonio where he will attend school. Tom is a model boy and will be greatly missed in Comanche.

Our enterprising fellow-townsmen, Messrs. Martin, Byrne, and Johnson, have been awarded a contract to build a jail at Sweetwater, Nolan County, for $8,750. This is another evidence of the enterprise and energy of these gentlemen. Being practical mechanics, they know just what it costs to build, and when they get a contract, they pull off their coats and work the same as a hired hand. Such men deserve success and we are please to see them reaping the reward they so richly deserve. This firm now has six buildings under contract—four stores, one courthouse, and one jail.

Mrs. Floyd Prather and Mrs. Walter Durham Jr. were Dallas visitors the first part of the week.

Public School Week

MARCH 6-10

Next week the public schools are open to adults. It is Public Schools Week, an annual event in Texas education. It is a chance for you parents to see for yourselves what the schools are doing. These public schools are YOUR public schools. You build them. You maintain them with your taxes. They are major factors in developing the character of your children. Visit them next week. See them in action during Public Schools Week.

A professor of philosophy associated with the University of Texas recently said capital punishment is not a crime deterrent. There are many authorities in the field of crime study who will not agree with the learned professor and who believe that fear of a death penalty being carried out is a very strong deterrent. Roadblocks to prompt court action, permitted defense counsel by law, and delay after delay in trial proceedings followed by still longer deal in carrying out a death penalty has resulted in a growing dislike for the capital punishment of today.

$5,000,000 a day was said to be the cost of a strike called last week by flight engineers of some of the major airlines of the nation. Immense four-engine jets costing millions upon millions of dollars together with propeller planes of every description rested on the ramps all over the country. Fast growing Western Air Lines promptly fired striking engineers and replaced them with men capable of keeping their planes in the air and did so. To the layman this would seem to be the answer to this problem.

Experts on the African situation were wondering a few days ago how long Portugal can keep her possessions there under control with the turmoil at boiling point in the nearby Congo. Portugal's colonial system governing the vast areas of Angola and Mozambique has worked for many years and apparently she proposes to use an iron hand if necessary in continuing the system. Tough border guards are reported to be holding back infiltration of troublemakers from the Congo and the Portuguese, knowing the mind of the black man of Africa by long association, may be successful in their efforts.

A doctor from Detroit recently reported at a meeting of other doctors in Fort Worth, that he had been using a boiler cleaning compound for several years in successful treatment of heart disease. As long as men with inquiring minds exist on the earth wonders will never cease. May their numbers grow and grow.

And while other law-abiding citizens were sleeping a few nights ago burglars tunneled under ground 25 feet in the city of Seattle and came up inside a bank's vault to make away with almost $30,000 of the bank's funds. Engineering skill of this kind is worthy of a higher calling but talent, like oil, is where you find it.

U. N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson was quoted last Saturday as expressing considerable shock at the 11 additional political assassinations in the Congo. These latest killings were said to be by Lumumba followers in Oriental Province. One must become immune to these tragic events while the Congo writhes in the throes of becoming a nation. Tribal fury will destroy many more Congolese before peace and quiet returns to the country. One of the most meaningful headlines of the past few days reports: "Army Chief Warns of Chinese Danger." Secretary of the Army Elvis Stahr Jr. is quoted as saying that Soviet weapons of war are presently being made available to China in alarming amounts and we can not afford to ignore the implications. It would certainly be unwise for this nation to depend upon friction between Russia and China to lessen our own danger and surely this is a timely warning.

And near home in San Antonio, 39 stores selling magazines and various kinds of periodicals are reported to have agreed to discontinue sales of lewd reading material at the request of Parent-Teachers Association officials. A step in the right direction but this will be a hard fight since the sale and distribution of this filth has become a lucrative business for some persons too greedy to consider the morals of the nation's youth.

Apparently labor leaders have been keeping in close touch with Mr. Kennedy's efforts to give the economy a shot in the arm since they have offered a suggestion that income taxes be reduced on a temporary basis by some $5,000,000,000. They fail to submit a plan to maintain government expenditures to offset this loss in revenue. Reduction of taxes even on a temporary basis is a tasty tid-bit but it is only fuzzy thinking to submit a proposition of this kind when nothing practical is offered in lieu of funds lost.

Here From Arlington
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lee of Arlington spent the week-end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rauhut.

Unearthed among his souvenirs and relics a clipping 111 years old taken from a paper in Kentucky advertising the following items for sale because the owner was moving to Oregon: Three ox teams, two milch cows, one iron plow, 60 gallon soap kettle, two spinning wheels, 30 pounds mutton tallow, 132 gallons John Miller liquor, 30 gallons apple brandy, 40 gallons molasses, six fox hounds and 6 slaves, being 2 men, 2 boys and 2 mulatto wenches. Good old days in the Blue Grass region.

Band To Enter Dublin Contests

The Indians "go Irish" on St. Patrick's Day March 17, as the Indian marching band enters in the Irish celebration in Dublin—Dublin, Texas, of course!

Each band or school taking part in the festivities may enter a Colleen Queen Contestant to compete in the beauty contest which climaxes the day's activities that night.

The band members selected Sharon Durham to represent them in this contest. Rita Taylor was the choice for alternate.

The band will participate in the morning parade down main street, along with bands from all over the area. That afternoon the band will enter the concert play-
